"The Richard Trenary Family Tree"

Family Numbers

Each family is given a family number. This number appears before a descendant's name in two locations. The first is where the descendant is listed as a child of their parents and the second is in the next generation where the descendant family information is recorded. In the Levi Wesley Trenary chapter, Thomas Trenary Barker is assigned the family number 22. You will find him on page 280 as his parent's second child and on page 285 with a description of his family. On page 280 neither his oldest nor youngest brother lived to have families of their own and therefore, were not assigned a family number. His brother Scott was assigned family number 23 and his sister Julie was assigned family number 24 because they both had families of their own. On page 285 information about Tom and his family begins with his family number 22 then his complete name ie: 22 Thomas Trenary[4] Barker (Dorothy Swaim Trenary [8]). Right after Tom's name is his mother's name in parentheses with her family number of eight. The name in parentheses is the parent's name in the Trenary line and their family number. The superscript number [4] right after Tom's middle name means Tom is in the fourth generation of the Levi Chapter and you need to add one generation to correct his relationship to Richard.

Chapters and generations

Richard begins this book and is the first Trenary generation and each of his thirteen children are therefore the second generation. However, in order to present each of Richard's children in their own chapters we begin a new genealogy register report for each of them. This makes each of Richard's children the first generation in their respective chapter. Therefore, you will need to add one generation to each descendant to correct their relationship to Richard. Each of Richard's children starts with the family number of one in their chapter.

Footnotes

There are three superscript numbers in this book. They are the descendant's generation number with the descendant's names, the parent's family number within the parenthesis and footnotes. Footnotes are printed at the end of each chapter.

Index

The index is only by full given name at birth.

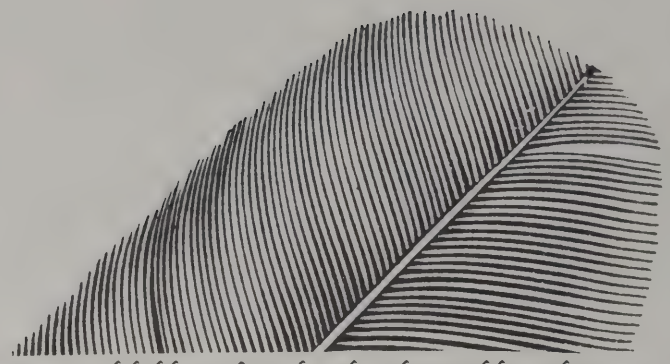
INTRODUCTION



As two great-great-grandchildren of Richard and Matilda we lost our close tie to this Trenary family with the deaths of our mothers; Tom in 1945 and Sandy in 1963. But two grandmothers, both of whom died in January 1976, nourished us both with Trenary love and many stories about the family which kindled our desire to identify the family. Sandy was searching for descendants and Tom for ancestors when we met in 1977 through the Wells County Historical Society. Combining our efforts, we compiled the first printing of this book in 1979 to coincide with the Richard Trenary family reunion on August 19, 1979 at Ossian, Indiana.

Twenty-five years later we have revised and updated this book to coincide with another Richard Trenary family reunion to be held on August 7, 2004 again in Ossian. As with our first edition, this one is still missing pieces of the family and it's history. We have come to the understanding that the search never ends and this project will never be complete. Yet our search has been most rewarding and fulfilling. We have met so many family members, enjoyed their fellowship and have been so pleased to find a strong familial bond among Trenarys. There is such harmony of love for our name and the ties to our ancestors; it has made our search truly a labor of love.

We are most appreciative to you, our Trenary cousins, who have furnished us with so much family information and made so many contributions that have made this book what it is today. Your help has compelled us to publish this revision so that our family history can be shared with the entire family. We hope you will sit down and share it with future generations.

NAME AND RECORD

John Trenerry is the primogenitor of the Trenary name. He was born in 1534 in the Newlyn East Parish of the County of Cornwall, England. Lieutenant Colonel William Mudge's "Ordnance Survey" of "Truro and Lizard Head" of Cornwall "Published on the 5th of Jany 1813" shows the old Trenerry farm four miles and three furlongs north of Truro.

Even in Cornwall, where the Cornish dialect would have been similar, the Trenerry name has various spellings. Because written English was a phonetic language until the mid-nineteenth century, names were spelled as they sounded to the writer. Until recent times many forefathers had to depend upon those who could read and write to do their paper work, then place their mark ["X"] on the necessary papers, not even being able to verify the spelling of their own name.

When searching old records, Trenary is found spelled: Trenery, Trennery, Trenerry, Trinary, Tenery, or Tineary etc. Some of these variations are in use today as the family spelling was passed down to them. Our ancestor Richard signed his land purchase in Fort Wayne, Indiana "Trenary". It was spelled "Tranara" in a Loudoun Co., Virginia Land Indenture and as "Treenary" in a Wells Co., Indiana history book.

Not only is there the problem of searching for the different ways Trenary may have been spelled but many of Virginia's records were destroyed in the three wars of this country's development. The Revolutionary War, the War of 1812 and the Civil war each claimed their share of old records around the Nation's capitol. Winchester and Frederick County became the scene of six battles during the Civil War, and the city itself changed flags around seventy times during the four year conflict, it is said thirteen times in one day. The remaining records are not available to us here in the midwest. Those records, which will require hours of searching for some clue that will tie the Trenary family together, are in Virginia. Mary and I have made five trips to Virginia perusing the court houses, libraries and historical societies to learn some of Richard's past. Even with some idea who the Trenarys were in 1811, we still can't connect Richard with any family in Virginia.

OSSIAN, INDIANA

Ossian is the banner town of Wells County. Situated ten miles north of the County Seat, our city affords the northern portion of the county with an ideal trading-point. Again, being situated centrally in an exceedingly fertile district, she is the emporium of the wealth of the rich lands surrounding her – a truly ideal market for whatsoever is grown in the country round about.

Not alone is Ossian to be considered in her purely commercial aspects. She is a seat of intellectuality and mental advancement, and might in all justice be termed the Athens of the County, whence go out year by year the pride of state and country.

The early history of Ossian is similar to that of most of our pioneer towns. Early happenings are shrouded in oblivion, or remembered only in such a vague way as to make the occurrences seem purely traditional.

Dates for the most part are almost as difficult to obtain as are credible stories of the past ideals and achievements of the place. Still, looking back to the not exceedingly far-past year, 1837, we find that the present site of the city was a wilderness of woods, inhabited by all natural denizens of a primeval forest. The wide sluggish, malarial-laden Eight-Mile flowed along to its destination – Little River – through swamps haunted by deer, bear, and the ghosts of red warriors who twenty years before had hunted, trapped and slain their kind along its misty margins. This rank, scummy overflow – at places one-half mile wide, at others impassable – reminding one of nothing so much as the fabled infernal river (which rolls to its destination through Erebus blackness and filthy fogs of death,) nourished the germs of ague and all the deadly fevers. Roundabout, the silent woods, dense and damp, distorted and disfigured by gnarled, swampy undergrowth, shrouded the pleasant land which was, years later, to develop into a most choice farming district.

Imagine if you can this scene. A heavy growth of woods, covering a dank swampland, full of wild animals, poisonous airs, and one might almost say, dews of death! A sickly, misty place where all the long nights throughout the rainy season the perpetual drip of moisture soaking through all things permeable, hung in great dewy beads on every conceivable thing! A chilly, inclement country, where during the bleak winters the icy wind howled and hissed the livelong while, singing wild sonatas pathetique and wilder misereries in the oaks and ashes of the virgin forest! A dangerous land, full of snakes, and crawling creatures, unclean reptiles, wild things that love such black, isolated fastnesses; fearsome, grewsome abode of terrors, that required men of great hearts and powerful, splendid, Ilyssus like forms to enter and conquer – to enter and alter to meet the demands of an encroaching generation.

Into this wild of forest, water, swamp and ague, came Robert and William Craig in 1837, the first Jefferson Township pioneers. William shortly returning to the old home brought back, in 1838, his family. Then came other adventurous spirits, who reasoned that, despite of all the obstacles that confronted them, the land was good, and would eventually furnish homes and farms for themselves and children.

RICHARD TRENARY

AUG. 8, 1811 - SEPT. 11, 1880

Richard Trenary

Richard[7] Trenary[1] was born in Frederick Co, Virg. 8 Aug 1811.[2] Richard died 11 Sep 1880 in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind., at 69 years of age. His body was buried in the old Ossian Cemetery in Ossian, Ind.

Richard married twice. He was married first in Loudoun Co, Virg., 2 Sep 1834 to Matilda Settle.[3] Matilda was born in Virg. 15 Aug 1812.[4] She was the daughter of Reuben Settle and Naomi Lyne. Matilda died 26 Sep 1873 [5] in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind., at 61 years of age. Her body was buried in the old Ossian Cemetery in Ossian, Ind. After Matilda died, Richard was married second in Wells Co, Ind., 6 Jun 1875 to Mahala Shuey by James Chalfant, Justice of the Peace.[6] Mahala was born in Mercer Co, Ohio 3 Jun 1842.[7] Mahala was the daughter of Thomas Shuey and Eliza Hines.[8] She was the widow of Samuel T Archbold [9] whom she had married on 15 Jun 1864 in Allen Co, Ind.[10] They are the parents of Mary Belle, Phebe and Ida May Archbold. After Richard died Mahala was married for the third time to Richard Short in Wells Co, Ind., on 3 Apr 1884 by Rev. M M Lawson.[11] Mahala died 17 Oct 1895 at 53 years of age.[12] Her body was buried next to her father in the Elhanan Cemetery in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind.

Richard's Great-Grandfather Presumptive

Even though there is no link to Richard's parents, his birthplace provides enough evidence to know about his family and his heritage. Either his grandfather or presumably his great-grandfather was also named Richard Trenary and was the son of Samuell Trenery and Dorothy Bishopp.[13] He was christened with the name of Richard Trenery 25 May 1717 in East Newlyn, Cornwall, England [14] and was a descendant of John Trenerry born about 1534 in the same parish.[15] In the spring of 1742 Richard, almost 25, was sentenced to seven years in the American Colonies for stealing 6,000 pounds of tobacco.[16] He was transported in April of 1742 [17] to Prince Georges Co, Maryland [18] and eventually showed up on a 1758 land indenture with his Americanized name of Richard Trenary. On that 1758 Loudoun Co, Virginia[19] colonial land record Richard, with his wife Mary and son William Bishop, leased 100 acres.[20] It is believed he died around 1790 and most of his family moved to Frederick County where his son Samuel lived. Richard and Mary were the parents of William Bishop, Samuel and Nancy [21] and it is assumed that Benjamin, Richard, Mary, and Elizabeth were also his children. By 1811 when our subject was born, the following is known about Richard and Mary's children:

William Bishop Trenary was born in 1752 [22] and served in the Revolutionary War.[23] He was married to Sarah Bellwood 11 Jan 1789 in Frederick Co, Virg. [24] Only two sons of their ten children are known. William Bishop and Sarah moved to

Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania in 1810.[25]

Richard Trenary also served in the Revolutionary War [26] and was married about 1790 to Hannah Branson. Her family were members of the Crooked Run Quaker Meeting House. Richard and Hannah and their family were in Highland County, Ohio as early as 1804.[27] He must have died before 1810 when Hannah married second Edward Curtis.[28]

Samuel Trenary, son of Richard and Mary,[29] was married to Mary Archer in Frederick Co, 8 Jul 1799 [30] and their nine children are known.[31] There was also a marriage in Frederick Co, on 5 Sep 1786, of a Samuel Trenary to Sarah Grimes.[32] There are some who believe that Samuel and Sarah had six children and that he married second Mary Archer [33] but the Virginia 1787 personal property tax record [34] looks as if there may have been two Samuel Trenarys. There were two Samuel Trenarys as heads of family in the 1810 Frederick Co, Virg. census both with a male over 45 residing at their dwelling.[35]

Benjamin Trenary, was born 4 Jun 1758 [36] and went to Washington County, Kentucky where he married Peggy Peak on 4 Jun 1798.[37] They moved across the Ohio River to Perry County, Indiana.[38]

Mary Trenary had married Joseph Cook sometime in the 1780's.[39]

Elizabeth Trenary married Thomas Grubbs 30 Jun 1785 in Frederick Co, Virg.[40] He named in his will Polly, Nancy Ann, Nancy, Hezekiah and Sally Trinary.[41]

Nancy Trenary [42] was never married and is the mother of Nancy Ann and Hezekiah Trenary.[43]

The Trenary family lived in the southeast corner of Frederick County near White Post. This area is now in the southwest corner of Clarke County. The 1800 to 1820 tax records of Frederick County [44] show only one Samuel paying personal property taxes from 1804 through 1814 the year Richard and Mary's son Samuel Trenary died. William Trenary also paid taxes there from 1804 to 1809, the year he moved to Pennsylvania. During this time period there are at least four Trenary men, born in Virginia, that can not be linked to their parents:

Samuel M Trenary who had family in Frederick County, Virginia;[45]
William Bishop Trenary born 5 Jan 1805 and who settled in Davidson County, Ky;[46]
John B Trenary who was at the battle of San Jacinto, when Texans on 21 Apr 1836 defeated the Mexican Army and Texas declared its independence;[47]

The Newlyweds Join The Westward Expansion

Family history has "Richard and Matilda eloping and traveling to Indiana with Richard walking and leading the horse which Matilda rode, by way of Mercer County, Ohio."[48] The saddle bags are still in the possession of the family. Matilda's family lived in the Round Hill area of Loudoun County where Richard and Matilda were married. On their marriage bond Matilda's brother, Nelson Settle, testified to her legal age and Robert Cunningham, Matilda's brother-in-law, posted the security bond.[49] Matilda had inherited one sixth of her father's farm in Loudoun County.[50] On October 8th 1834, Richard and Matilda living in Frederick County, sold her share of her father's estate to her brother Thomas Settle in Loudoun County for fifty dollars.[51]

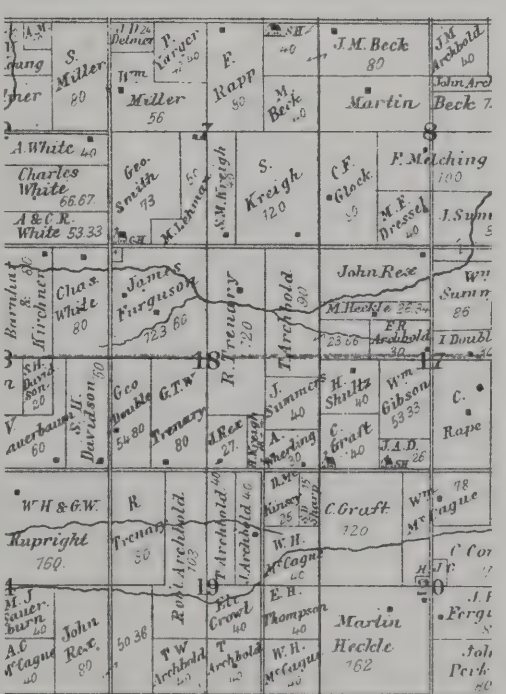
Richard and Matilda traveled with Hezekiah Trenary and his wife Elizabeth Handel to Piqua, Miami Co, Ohio in 1835 [52] along with another Trenary man,[53] who could have been Richard's alleged brother Thomas E Trenary.[54] They may well have traveled up Braddock's Road to Pine Twp, Allegheny Co, Pennsylvania, where William Bishop Trenary and his family had settled in 1810.[55] From there they could have floated down the Ohio River to Manchester, Adams Co, Ohio where Samuel Trenary lived.[56] He was the son of Benjamin, born in 1891,[57] and had married Christina Wade at Manchester on 21 Apr 1825.[58] Fifty miles north of Manchester this entourage could well have entered Highland County, Ohio, where they would have found the Revolutionary War veteran, Richard Trenary's seven children. His son Richard was living in Union Twp, and across the county line in Green Twp. Clinton County lived another son, Thomas. These young Trenarys had settled in this area of Ohio with their mother before the War of 1812.[59] Also living in Green Twp. was Sarah Trenary, daughter of a Samuel Trenary and her husband Charles Haynie. They had moved from Virginia to Clinton County in 1830.[60] The final portion of their travels was made in the fall of 1835 to Piqua [61] where Hezekiah rented a farm and was a blacksmith.[62] By 1837 Hezekiah had settled near Celina, in Mercer County, Ohio [63] and Richard was in Indiana.[64] A descendant of Hezekiah wrote "Three Trenary boys came up from Virginia on a flat boat on the Ohio River and landed at Manchester, Ohio. One came to the Celina area, one near Poe, Ind. and the other to Ill."[65] The relationship of these three Trenary boys has not been determined but a 1917 photo of a Trenary family reunion lets us know that Hezekiah's and Richard's descendants stayed in contact with each other.

Richard and Matilda Settle in Wells County, Indiana

Richard and Matilda were in Allen Co, Indiana by January, 1837 when their first child Susan was born.[66] On December 5, 1838 Richard was in the United States Land office at Fort Wayne, Indiana purchasing his 80 acres, the west half of the northeast quarter Section 18, Township 28 North, 13 East, at $1.25 per acre, for a total of $100.00.[67] They were living in Adams County when Richard bought his land. They settled three miles south of Poe, in "the wild of forest, water, swamp and ague," of Wells County, Indiana in 1839 with their two little girls.

Jefferson Township was organized and with its first election, held April 6, 1840, Richard was elected Trustee.[68] Three and one half miles to the west of his farm, the township trustees laid out Ossian, Indiana on March 14, 1850.[69]

In the fall of 1848 Richard and Matilda had gained new next door neighbors, Thomas and Phebe Valentine Archibald.[70] A reading from Archibald's biographical sketch gives us an idea of the adventurous spirit of all those pioneers and how they conquered the obstacles that



Richard's 80 acres were in section 18. Then he purchased the 40 acres to the south. Sometime later he acquired 80 acres in section 19 in Jefferson Township confronted them in opening the land that became Jefferson Township. This sketch also gives us insight into Richard's ability as a carpenter and handyman and shows what good neighbors and caring people Richard and Matilda were.

A CUPBOARD MADE BY RICHARD TRENARY

"Not a stick had been cut except by the roving hunter, and the work of making a home in the new country devolved upon Thomas and his eldest son. A cabin was built on the northeast corner of his land, where his family spent the winter of 1848 —'49. Their house was fitted up with furniture made by Richard Trenary, who is now deceased. Benches were made of basswood, and bedsteads were made by putting hole in a log which formed one of the walls of the cabin, then by setting a post on the floor into which two holes were bored and sticks inserted at right angles that were lashed together with strips of basswood bark, upon which the bedding was placed. Mr. Archibald was not alone in this primitive manner of house furnishing; it was almost universal in the new country. The early settlers were mostly poor people, and for the first ten years Mr. Archibald depended almost entirely upon the manufacture of black salts for the money necessary to support his family. As the timber was burned, the ashes were gathered and placed in a great leach, which was drained and the lye evaporated in kettles until it became stiff. This was sold at about $3.00 per hundred pounds, and found a ready market at Fort Wayne and other towns. The timber was very heavy and it took years of toil to make a small farm. To add to the misfortunes of Mr. Archibald, he was attacked with rheumatism the next spring after he came to the county, and those were the darkest hours of his life; for without money, the spring time at hand, and the song of the ax that was heard on every tract except his own, made the time pass slowly. His neighbors came in and showed by kindly acts that he was not only welcome, but was highly appreciated in the new country. He thinks their attention made him a better neighbor than he otherwise might have been."[71]

On January 7, 1860 Richard purchased an adjoining 40 acres for $440.00 from William and Susannah Kreigh.[72] This 120 acre farm is still intact and is owned today by Milton Gallmeyer. It is just east of the Elhanan Cemetery. On this farm Matilda gave birth to eight more children. All except Maria, who died when she was only a child of four, grew up on this farm to become adults and went on to have children of their own.

Eliza, the youngest, was only 14 when her mother died from the result of a fall while trying to hang a picture.[73] A little more than one year and a half later Richard married Mahala Shuey Archbold the widow of Richard's neighbor and friend's son Samuel T. The three step-daughters Mary, Phebe and Ida Archbold, that Richard brought to the family farm, now lived next door to their grandfather, Thomas Archibald. Richard, with Mahala as his bride, had three more children of their own. The two boys died young and the girl, Nancy, grew up to have children of her own.

Mahala's father, Thomas Shuey, wrote his family history as follows: "I was born in Monethovn Township York County Penn on the 20th of March 1811. Eleven miles from Harisburg, I came to Marion County Ohio in 1831. I was married to Eliza Hines the 22 Day of September 1831 She was born the 15 September 1814 in Ross County Ohio We raised eleven children five boys & Six girls as follows Alaphare John William Malisia Permela Mahala Margaret Thomas Jacob James & Mary My father John Shuey was born in Abbotstown York Co. Penn He had too brothers & too sisters Michel & Peter Elizabeth and Susana My grandfather Peter Shuey came from Germany he had too Brothers Vtolentine & Steven".[74]

A month before his death, Richard made out his will as follows:

> "In the name of the Benevolent Father of all.
> I, Richard Trenary do make and publish this my last will and testament. First, it is my will that my just debts and all charges be paid out of my estate: I give and devise to my girls, Mary Mary A. Wilken (or her heir), Susan L. Kiser, Matil N. Lewis, Rebecca A. Rapp and Eliza J. Caston, two hundred dollars each (to be paid out of my estate). To my sons George T. W. Trenary, Hezekiah Nelson Trenary, John E. Trenary and Levi W. Trenary, I have already given their share of my estate. The residue of my estate (both personal and real) I give to my wife (Mahala Trenary) during her natural life: after the decease of my wife, said estate to be divided equally between the children, that has, or may have by me. In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand and seal this 4th day of August 1880".
> Richard Trenary {Seal} [75]

Richard died in the fall of 1880 after being gored by a bull.[76] He left behind his second wife; eight children with families of their own; a son-in-law, William Wilkin with his family; two children younger than three and three step-daughters. His farm was then 200 acres of land in Jefferson Township. The farm was passed down to Nancy Ebe after Mahala died in 1895.

Her Last Will and Testament was written on January 31, 1855 in which she names five of her children. Her will was recorded in Loudoun County as follows:

I, Naomi Settle of the County of Loudoun, and State of Virginia, whereby make my last will and testament, revoking all others, in manner and form following wit:

I give to my two sons, Thomas Settle and Nelson Settle and my daughter Susan Settle all and every part of my property in whatever it may consist: to be equally divided among them to have and to dispose of as they may see proper. My other two daughters, Mary Worford and Matilda Trenary (Wells Co, Ind.) I consider have had their full share, therefore: I leave them nothing.

I hereby constitute and appoint my two sons, Thomas Settle and Nelson Settle joint executors of this my last will and testament desiring that they be entrusted to give security as such.

I so entrust whereof I have hereto set my hand and seal this 31 day of January eighteen hundred and fifty-five.[13]

Reuben Settle and Naomi Lyne had the following family:

ii. Mary Settle. She was married to a Worford.

iii. Thomas Settle was born ca 1803. Thomas died in 1890 at 87 years of age, unmarried. His Last Will and Testament was written 24 Aug 1886 and was probated, 4 Apr, 1890, a month before his brother's. His will is very similar to that of his brother Nelson. He left his share of the estate to the children of his former servants, Reuben and Martha Dean, and the use of the house to his housekeeper, Mrs. Martha Rogers, and her daughter as long as they remained unmarried.[14]

iv. Susan Settle was born ca 1807. She never married and died before 1889.

v. Nelson Settle was born ca 1810. Nelson died in 1890 at 80 years of age. Nelson's Last Will and Testament was written on 19 Jun 1889 and probated on 12 May 1890 only a month after the will of his brother Thomas. His will shares with us some of Matilda's family history.

In the name of God, Amen. I Nelson Settle of the County of Loudoun and state of Virginia being now of sound and disposing mind and memory and in full propitiation of my reasoning faculties, but in feeble body health do make and constitute this my last will and testament and hereby revoking all others hereto made by me.

Susan Alcinda Trenary

Susan Alcinda[1] Trenary,[1] daughter of Richard Trenary and Matilda Settle, was born in Allen Co, Ind. 18 Jan 1837.[2] Susan died 14 Dec 1899 in Clay Co, Ark., at 62 years of age. Her body was buried in the Piggott Cemetery in Piggot, Ark.

She married twice. Susan was married first in Wells Co, Ind., 15 Oct 1857 to James Bunn by J R Lefever, a Justice of the Peace.[3] James was born in Stark Co, Ohio 11 Feb 1837. James [4] was the son of Jacob Bunn and Sarah Wheeler. He died 24 May 1861 at 24 years of age. After James' death Susan was married second in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind., 9 Jul 1866 to Peter Kiser by B F Taylor, a Justice of the Peace.[5] Peter was born in Mercer Co, Ohio 12 Oct 1838. Peter [6] was the son of Jacob Kiser and Mary Sparrow. Peter died 15 May 1903 in Piggot, Clay Co, Ark., at 64 years of age. His body was buried in the Piggott Cemetery in Piggot, Ark.

James Bunn was also from a Wells County pioneer family. His father, Jacob, had entered Jefferson Twp. in 1838 and engaged some of the residents to build a cabin so that his family might have suitable shelter when they arrived. They were the eighth family to settle in Jefferson Township. Their move was described in Wells County history: "A wagon drawn by one horse, containing necessary bedding, with wife and babies [James and Dennis], completed the load. Mrs. Bunn drove the horse while her husband attended to the two cows that were driven through. Two young men accompanied them, but they remained only a short time. When they arrived in 1839, not a stick had been cut except where the cabin stood; but that autumn found two acres cleared and sown to wheat. During the winter several acres more were cleared for corn, and the coming spring found the enterprising farmer ready to plant his crop. The malarial atmosphere brought the ague, which prevailed extensively; yet the heroic pair held bravely on, until by their united exertions the heavy forest had melted away and a nice farm was opened up in the wildwood. The rude log cabin was replaced by a neat hewed log house, which in turn gave way to the substantial frame building. Their first barn was built of hewed logs."[7]

Peter Kiser
Co F 88 Regiment Indiana Infantry

Susan's second husband Peter Kiser's family came from Rockingham Co, Virg. and settled in Mercer Co, Ohio. Of the seven Kiser children four of them had marital ties with the Trenary family. Peter married Susan and his older sister Zenana Kiser became Nancy Ebe Trenary's mother-in law. Peter's younger sister Rebecca Kiser married George T W Trenary. George's stepdaughter, Cathrine Bapp married Peter's nephew Charles W Archbold and Richard Trenary's second wife, Mahala Shuey was a sister-in-law to Harriet Kiser who is the mother of Charles W Archbold.

Peter Kiser moved to Wells county in 1859 and on the 5th of August 1862 he enlisted at Fort Wayne to serve in the Civil War for three years. He was enrolled as a Corporal in Company F of the 88 Regiment of the Indiana Infantry. Peter took part in thirteen battles and was discharged as a 1st Sergeant at Washington DC on the 7th day of June 1865. After Susan married her war hero they lived in Jefferson Township where their children were born. Peter was a farmer and was "also engaged in boring wells" and had "the exclusive right of the Star well auger, for Wells County."

In 1892 Susan and Peter moved to Trenary Mich. and settled on the property north of her younger brother Levi's homestead. Because of a dispute with Levi, about locating the road on the half mile line instead of the section line, Susan and Peter sold their place and moved to Arkansas in 1897 where Susan died in 1899.

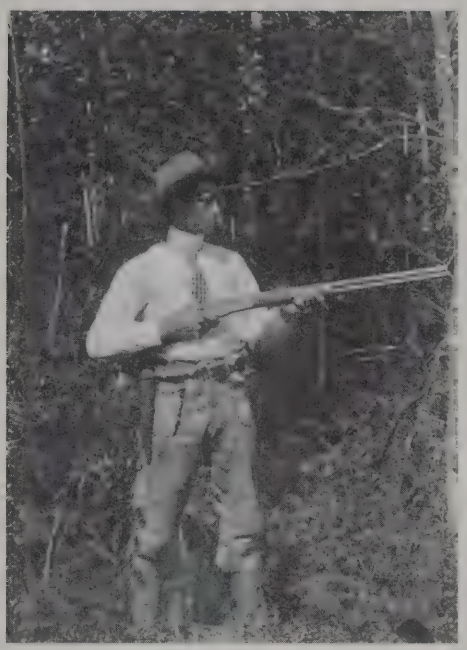
3. Michael Gilbert[2]Kiser (Susan Alcinda Trenary [1])[22] was born in Wells Co, Ind. 11 Mar 1877.[23] Michael died of pneumonia 31 May 1935 in Trenary, Alger Co, Mich., at 58 years of age. His body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich.

Mike was married in Trenary, Alger Co, Mich., 29 Nov 1900 to Sarah Ann Mills. Sadie was born in Ossian, Wells Co, Ind. 4 Aug 1880. Sadie was the daughter of Warren Packard Mills and Elizabeth Caroline Davis. Sadie died 31 Jan 1972 in Marquette, Marquette Co, Mich., at 91 years of age. Her body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich.

Michael's daughter June, who help immensely with the Kiser information, wrote the following history piece for the Alger County Historical Society's newsletter: The Kiser Family, Mathias Township Pioneers by June Kiser Short.

"Shortly after Levi Trenary homesteaded acreage in what is now Mathias Township, he persuaded his sister, Susanna Trenary Bunn Kiser, and her husband and children to come from Indiana and take up the homestead directly north of his holdings. Susanna agreed. Her first husband, James Bunn, had died several years before, and she had married Civil War veteran Peter Kiser. Susanna and Peter moved to Trenary in 1892, bringing with them five of their children: George, John, Michael, Marcellus, and Jacob. The surviving Bunn children remained in Indiana.

With Levi's help the family erected a log cabin on the homestead site. A few years later George, Jacob, and John returned to Indiana. Jacob married and settled on a farm near Ossian, and John enrolled in Valparaiso College to become a veterinarian. He later returned to Trenary and acted as veterinarian to the horses and other animals used in the logging camps in the area.



Mike Kiser

In the following years dissension arose between Peter Kiser and Levi Trenary regarding the location of roads. Unable to resolve the dispute, Peter and Susanna sold their property and, taking Michael with them, moved to Arkansas, where they had inherited property from a relative of Peter's. Michael was unhappy with this move. His best chum was Billy Trenary, Levi's son. He and Levi were good friends. He wrote to his uncle, asking if he could return to Trenary and live with him. Levi replied, 'Of course', and Michael returned.

Back in Trenary Michael studied surveying and was employed by the Soo Line Railroad to help survey its western route out to Fargo, North Dakota. He was gone for two years. Once again returning to Trenary, he met Sarah (Sadie) Mills, who had once lived next door to them in Indiana.

Romance bloomed and Michael and Sarah were wed on Thanksgiving Day, November 29, 1900. They settled down temporarily in the home of Sarah's mother, while Michael continued to help his uncle and worked as a surveyor plotting what is now termed the 'old cemetery'. They bought land in West Limestone next to Gravelles and built a home. Here their first daughter, Kathleen (who later married Carl Holmquist) was born in January, 1902.

They felt that their present location was unsuitable for the adequate care of a tiny baby, so they returned to Trenary, moving into a house owned by Levi just east of the present high school building. Mike again helped his uncle at his mill and in his store and post office. He also carried the mail on a rural route through North Delta, using a horse in winter and riding a bicycle in summer.

Mike and Sadie's second daughter, Anna (who later married Jerry Longtine) was born in July, 1903. Feeling the need of a larger home, they then sold their property in West Limestone and bought three acres west of Trenary, not far from Sadie's mother's home. They built a house on this property, too, and lived there for several years. It was here that their third daughter was born in July, 1908.

Mike and Sarah were both active in the affairs of the community, with Mike holding several political offices and Sarah taking part in the work of the Methodist Church. During this period Mike opened an ice cream soda fountain and pool hall, which he operated for several years, later selling it to Gabe Heldman.

While Mike lived in Arkansas he contracted malaria and sometimes suffered severe bouts with it. Now his doctor advised him to get out of doors to build up his health, so he began looking for a farm. He and Sadie found just what they wanted east of Trenary. This was the original Dexter homestead on the banks of the Dexter Creek. It was across from the James Hawley place at the junction of M 67 and the Trout Lake Road. At that time it was owned by the Williams family and occupied by the Archie Finlans.

Meanwhile, Sadie's mother, Mrs. E. C. Mills, had taken several of her sons and moved to Montana, where they homesteaded land and began wheat farming. While Mike and Sarah were waiting to move into their new home, they agreed to care for Mrs. Mills' property at Trenary, putting in crops and paying the rent. They sold their three acre plot to Andrew Erickson.

It was while living on Sadie's mother's property that their fourth daughter, June, was born in 1918. World War I was raging, but due to ill health Mike was rejected for the armed services.

Finally, in 1920, they were able to move to their new farm. Mrs. Mills and sons had returned from Montana, where a succession of hail storms had wiped out their hopes of becoming wealthy ranchers.

During the remaining years of Mike's life, until his death from pneumonia in 1935, he continued to farm and served on township and school boards, drove school bus, and was secretary-treasurer of the Trenary branch of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul. His brother John returned to Indiana after the logging camps closed, where he died in 1949. Sadie, Lola, and June continued trying to farm the place, but equipment was old and help, expensive. Eventually Sadie sold it to her granddaughter Thelma Holmquist Carlson and her husband Bob, along with his brother Richard".[24]

Triplets, all girls, were born about 8:30 o'clock Saturday evening, to Mr. and Mrs. Don Bunn, who live on North Union Street, and the births created wide interest, from the fact that they are the first triplets ever born in Wells County, as far as can be ascertained.

The sad feature was that two of the babes died within a few hours after birth.

The three little girls were all perfectly formed, but were small, and while every effort was made to save them it was realized from the first that it was problematical if they had sufficient vitality to survive, but to give them every chance they and their mother were rushed from their home to the county hospital.

One of the babies died about 10:30 o'clock Saturday night, and a second babe died Sunday morning.

The third baby still was living this morning, but grave fears were expressed that it also would die.

The two children who passed away weighted 3 1/2 pounds each, and the third child weighed slightly less.

The funeral of the dead babies will be held Tuesday afternoon, at St Pauls church in Rockcreek, with burial there. The funeral is to be a private one.

Mrs. Bunn, who formerly was Miss Iva Faus, a daughter of John Faus, is reported in a satisfactory condition and it is thought her recovery is assured".[34]

Mary Francis Ann Trenary

Mary Francis Ann[1] Trenary, daughter of Richard Trenary and Matilda Settle, was born in Wells Co, Ind. 4 Jul 1838.[1] Mary died 19 Nov 1874 in Murray, Wells Co, Ind., at 36 years of age. Her body was buried in the Murray Cemetery in Murray, Ind.

MARY FRANCIS ANN TRENARY
JULY 4, 1838 - NOV. 19, 1874

She was married in Wells Co, Ind., 21 Feb 1856 to William Wilkin, by J Summers, Justice of the Peace.[2] William was born in Cadiz Twp, Harrison Co, Ohio 5 Apr 1833. William [3] was the son of Thomas P Wilkin and Mary Poland. After Mary died he married second, Laura J Woodward 16 Mar 1876. They were divorced.

William was married third 13 Jul 1884 to Rachel A Norton. William died 10 Jul 1916 at 83 years of age. His body was buried in the Fairview Cemetery in Bluffton, Ind.

We learn of Mary's family through the 1887 Biographical and Historical Record of Adams and Wells Counties, Indiana which reads as follows: "William Wilkin was born in Harrison County, Ohio, near Cadiz, son of Thomas P. and Mary A. (Poland) Wilkin, who were married in that county, and where the two oldest children were born: William, and Mary A., now the wife of John Kleinknight. The death of the mother occurred when Mary was only seven days old, and the children were cared for by their grandmother Wilkin. She was left a widow when her son Thomas was a mere lad, and after his marriage, her home was with him, and came with him to this county to share the toils and hardships of pioneer life. William was born April 8, 1833, and was four years of age when his father removed from Ohio to this county, stopping at Murray during the winter of 1837. The next spring Thomas came to the land now occupied by our subject, which was entered by him September 13, 1839. The following year he entered another tract, both of which patents, bearing the signature of President Van Buren, are in possession of William Wilkin. The first year they built a log cabin and cleared a few acres. They experienced very hard times. The horses strayed away, and one was mired and died in the swamp. Another one also died, and Thomas was left without a team to work his ground. A number of Indians were encamped near the edge of Bear Swamp, remaining three or four years, hunting all the while through these woods. Game of all kinds was abundant, and bears were occasionally killed. Mr. Wilkins relates that the Indians killed a bear near his father's house one morning, and afterward brought him one of the hams. They also made maple sugar in the woods nearby, and were upon excellent terms with all the white settlers, of whom there were but few. Game furnished most of the meat supply for several years. A few hogs were raised, but these were wild and comparatively valueless. Farming was conducted on a very small scale, and there was nothing that would bring money, and in fact there was nothing to sell except coon and deer pelts, and they only brought a trifle. The corn that was planted was preyed upon in the spring by squirrels and in the fall by raccoons, until there was scarcely anything left for the settlers. Martin Perry settled near Thomas Wilkin, and for years they were the only ones in this immediate neighborhood. The fortunes of the newcomers improved very slowly, in fact money could hardly be obtained to pay taxes. Our subject was rapidly growing into manhood, and developed into a great hunter. Inured to forest life, and agile as an Indian, he, in company with Jo Mendenhall, now of Liberty Township, hunted in partnership for several years, and during the season, their receipts averaged from $10 to $40 per day. With the money thus obtained William aided his father and helped to save him from many inconveniences. Thomas married Miss Rhoda Sutton about 1848. Not agreeing very well, they separated three years later, and Thomas remained unmarried during the remainder of his life. He was elected to official positions but refused to qualify, and was averse to attending to any save his own business. He died November 19, 1873, after a long life of usefulness, having been one of the first settlers in the county. In the early day, when a stranger appeared, Thomas waited not for him to approach unheralded, but always left his work and ran to make him welcome. William Wilkin was not well educated, in the ordinary sense of the word, as schools were almost unknown during his boyhood. He is a man, however, possessing good practical common-sense and. judgment, and possessing much shrewdness, withal, being one of the best farmers in the neighborhood. He is making money easily and rapidly. His mind is stored with much valuable information regarding the early history of the town and the historian is under great obligation for much that will appear in this work. February 21, 1856, he married Mary E. F. Trenary, daughter of Richard A. Trenary, one of the first settlers of Allen and Wells counties. He was known among the Indians as the 'True Pale Face'. Mr. and Mrs. Wilkin had nine children: Richard, Evaline, Nancy, William A., Emma J., Alonzo D., Clarence V., Nelson S. and Gracie. The death of the wife and mother occurred November 19, 1874. Five of her children are living and one is married. Miss Laura J. Woodard became the wife of Mr. Wilkin, March 16, 1876, Rev. J. H. Mc Mahon performing the marriage ceremony. They had one child: Cora S. A few years later, Laura J. separated from her husband, and July 13, 1884, Mr. Wilkin married Miss Rachel A. Norton, and Rev. B. Howard, pastor of the Poneto Baptist church, performing the ceremony. Mrs. Wilkin's parents were W. H. and Sarah A. (Huggins) Norton, whose parents were also early settlers, coming to Wells County in 1840. The mother is now a resident of Bluffton. The home of Mr. Wilkin is such as might be expected of a man who has wealth and ambition. The courtesy of himself and wife is proverbial. Nancy, the second daughter, married Marion Garton, a farmer and manufacturer of tile in Lancaster Township. Although still a young man Mr. Wilkin has six grandchildren". [4]

3. Nancy Matilda[2] Wilkin (Mary Francis Ann Trenary [1]) was born in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind. 19 Sep 1860. Nancy died at her home 27 Jan 1954 in Bluffton, Wells Co, Ind., at 93 years of age. Her body was buried in the Elm Grove Cemetery in Bluffton, Ind.

She was married in Wells Co, Ind., 11 Dec 1878 to Marion O Garton.[7] Marion was born in Lancaster Twp, Wells Co, Ind. 22 Nov 1860. Marion [8] was the son of Henry J Garton and Anna Marie Trullender. Marion died 29 Jun 1927 in Wells Co, Ind., at 66 years of age. His body was buried in the Elm Grove Cemetery in Bluffton, Ind.

From the 1887 "Biographical and Historical Record of Adams and Wells Counties, Indiana" we read about Nancy and Marion's family: "This young agriculturist and stock raiser and one of the most enterprising residents of Lancaster township, Wells county, Indiana, was born November 22, 1860, on the farm his grandfather, Jonathan Garton, had entered many years ago in this township and which is now owned by the widow Bowman.

Marion Garton is a son of Henry J. and Anna Maria Garton. He was reared on the farm alluded to above until sixteen years of age, when he began clerking in a general store in Pugney, Indiana, where he passed some time, gaining a fair insight into mercantile affairs. He there married, December 11, 1878, Miss Nancy M. Wilkin, a daughter of William and Mary (Trenary) Wilkin, and a native of Lancaster township, born September 19, 1860. After marriage, Marion Garton and his bride went to live with his father, for whom they kept house and assisted in farming the place for about five years, after which he engaged in the manufacture of tile for about ten years. Later he for three years employed himself in farming in conjunction with tilemaking, having in the meanwhile, in 1883, taken possession of the farm on which he now makes his home. The farm comprises eighty acres, sixty acres of which he has cleared and well ditched and on which he has erected a substantial barn and other necessary outbuildings for the accommodation of his stock and other purposes. Mr. Garton devotes the greater part of his attention to the breeding of thoroughbred shorthorn cattle, Shropshire sheep and Chester White hogs, and is ready at all times to furnish buyers with thoroughbred breeding stock. To keep his graded animals well up to the mark, Mr. Garton purchased in 1902, a cow and calf for two hundred and twenty-five dollars, and with these it is his hope to keep his graded animals in good supply and fully up to the mark.

To Mr. and Mrs. Marion Garton have been born five children, in the following order: Chloe M., May 2, 1880; Emma D., January 26, 1882; Hiram F., July 19, 1884; Hazel A., April 25, 1891, and Anna Fay, August 8, 1894.

Fraternally Mr. Garton is a member of the Knights of Pythias lodge at Tocsin, Indiana, and politically he is a Democrat of the most stalwart kind. He has served as delegate from his district to various conventions of his party and in 1899 was his party's candidate for sheriff of Wells county, but with the rest of the ticket was defeated by a small majority. He has also served as a grand juryman.

Mr. Garton, it will have been perceived from the foregoing, has always been an active man of business, ready to turn his hand to anything that promised to bring him satisfactory returns, and as a rule he has been very successful in all his undertakings. If he has not altogether made all he possesses, he has at least made good use of everything that has come into his hands and increased it in value. He has led a strictly upright life and has won the esteem of all who know him. He is honored not only for his industry and practical business methods, but for his many personal merits and in this general esteem his wife and children have a full share. In the social circles of Lancaster township the Garton family stand deservedly high, the name is duly respected wherever known, and no men of Mr. Garton's years can claim a higher standing among their fellow citizens".

The home of Nelson Trenary on siebold street in ossian, indiana

Hezekiah Nelson Trenary

Hezekiah Nelson[1] Trenary, son of Richard Trenary and Matilda Settle, was born in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind. 20 Jun 1844.[1] He always went by the name of Nelson H and was called Nelt. Nelt died 29 Jun 1905 in Trenary, Alger Co, Mich., at 61 years of age. His body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich.

Nelt was married in Jefferson Twp, Wells Co, Ind., 8 Oct 1868 to Mary Ellen Plummer, by Rev. J A Williams.[2] Molly was born in Richland Co, Ohio 21 Apr 1848. Molly was the daughter of John Plummer and Lydia Neidlinger. Molly died 15 Nov 1938 in Montpelier, Blackford Co, Ind., at 90 years of age. Her body was buried in the Fairview Cemetery in Bluffton, Ind. Mary and two daughters were living at 317 E Washington St., Bluffton, Ind. in 1902. Jennie was a compositor for the Bluffton News and Dessie worked at the Zero Mitten Factory.

Nelson's funeral services were held at his nephew Cleatus Gilliland's home and the Methodist church in Trenary. Rev. W.L. Browne of the M.E. Church at Trenary preached the following sermon;

"In the wise providence of our God, a beloved father, brother and friend has been called to his eternal rest. Although not very strong, no one of those to whom he had recently come, surmised that the end was so near. And yet he was well advanced in years, having attained the age of sixty-one years and nine days.

In the year 1844 on the twentieth, day of June, in Wells County, Indiana, Nelson Hezekiah was born. At the time Wells county was a wilderness; settlers were few and very scattered; schools were at a great distance and the way was beset by the perils of the wilderness.

It was in such a country that our brother spent his early years. He had the honor of being one of the pioneers of Wells county. A walnut cane, made from one of the columns of the old Court House, was presented to him among others because he had resided in the county fifty years at the time the old building was taken down. His life was devoted to agriculture.

He was married in 1868 to Mary Plummer, who resides with her daughter in Montpelier, Indiana. Nine children were born to them, and all are living but two. One died in infancy; the other was about two years old at the time of death. Two sons Lou Trenary and Richard Trenary are well known and highly respected citizens of this place. John Trenary, Raymond Trenary and Mrs. Dessie Hixon are living in Montpelier, Indiana. Charlie Trenary resides in Muncie, Indiana, and Mrs. Jennie Kaiser in Chicago.

On the twenty-ninth day of June 1905, the life record of Nelson Trenary was completed. Only the angels of God know all that is written therein. It is sealed up until the day of judgement, when all the mist of this life shall roll away, and we shall know each other and shall see each other in the light of God's holy heaven. He said on the very day of his death to those whom he loved: `I am not afraid to die.' He said: `I have no changes to make in my way of living; I expect a better home and a better rest than I have had in this world.' When some one said to him that we ought to live faithful Christian lives in this world, he said: `Yes, that's the right way.' He was always trying to make others cheerful and happy. His last thought was for others. He said: `Don't worry about me. I'm all right.' Such a disposition has won many friends who remain to mourn his departure. Besides seven children, there are three brothers and two sisters who mourn over their loss today.

May God of Peace and Comfort grant you all the consolations of His presence to uphold you in this hour of your affliction. `Let not your hearts be troubled,' saith the Master, `neither let them be afraid. Ye believe in God, believe also in me. In my Father's house are many mansions. If it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you, I will come again, and receive you unto myself, that where I' am there ye may be also."

Ellen sold Samen products door to door traveling by horse and buggy. They were members of the Elhanan Presbyterian Church.

His obituary follows: "Friday night occurred the death of John Trenary, at his home in Sheldon, after many years of suffering, the end coming very unexpectedly. Mr. Trenary had been unable to do any heavy work for a long time because of a badly afflicted limb that caused him terrible pain and confined him to his bed for weeks at a time but the trouble had been somewhat better of late. Friday night he suffered a stroke of apoplexy and lived but a few minutes afterward.

John E Trenary and Ellen M Snider

Mr. and Mrs. Trenary had recently moved from their home in Poe to Sheldon and had hardly become settled in their new location before the fatal illness overcame the father of the family.

The deceased, a native of this county, was known far and wide as a man of sterling qualities. His pleasant nature made him a friend to everyone, and he possessed a large circle of acquaintances who are now expressing sympathy to the bereaved family.

The funeral services were held in the Elhanan church, of which the deceased had long been a member, the service being conducted on Monday afternoon by his pastor, the Rev. Frank K. Baker. Interment was made in the Elhanan cemetery.

The following obituary was read at the funeral by the pastor: John Emanuel Trenary, son of Richard and Matilda Trenary, was born in Wells county, Indiana, July 10,1851, and died April 26,1918, age 66 years, nine months and sixteen days.

He was united in marriage to Ellen Snider, April 8,1874. Surviving him are the widow and six children: Arthur, of St. Louis, Earl, of Fort Wayne; Mrs. Harley Somers, of Fort Wayne; Philemon, of Camp Sheridan, Ala.; Mrs Charles Clark, of Ossian, and Harry, of Sheldon; also two brothers, Levi, of Trenary, Mich.; and George of Tocsin.

His entire life was spent in this vicinity, where he has had a host of friends who appreciated his genial companionship.

Sports writer Rick Weinberg wrote in the Los Angeles Lifestyle & Golf Magazine: "Joe Trenary never played against Jack Nicklaus or Arnold Palmer, but he did play against Mickey Mantle and Yogi Berra, two of the most legendary New York Yankee Hall of Fame players

Trenary, a golf instructor at Meadowlark Golf Course in Huntington Beach, played 10 years in the old Milwaukee Braves' minor league farm system and came this close to making the major leagues.

Trenary, who was drafted by the Braves out of high school in 1956 and was a roommate of former major leaguer and actor Bob Uecker, was a speedy center fielder who hit at the top of the batting order. His best season was in 1959, when he hit .314 with 22 home runs, 70 runs batted in and 22 stolen bases in 23 attempts for the Braves' AA farm team in Cedar Rapids, Idaho.

As a reward for his stellar season, Trenary was promoted to the Braves' AAA team in Louisville, Kentucky, which was playing in the Triple A World Series at the time. All Trenary did was hit .375 in the Series, and when he went to spring training the following season, he was a lock to be Louisville's starting center fielder, putting him on the threshold of the major leagues.

It was during the spring of 1960 that Trenary played against Mantle, Berra and the Yankees in an exhibition game in Florida. The same Yankees who wound up losing the 60 World Series to the Pittsburgh Pirates when Bill Mazaroski hammered what many believe to be the greatest home run ever a leadoff homer in the bottom of the ninth inning that gave the Pirates a 10-9 victory and the world championship.

When Trenary walked to home plate in the first inning against the Yankees, he took a moment to make sure he wasn't hallucinating. For standing in center field was Mantle and squatting behind home plate was Berra.

'It was an amazing feeling.' Trenary says, 'An indescribable feeling that I'll never forget.'

Trenary wound up doing 1 for 3 in the game, which was won by the Yankees, 5-4, on Gil McDougal's two-run homer in the eighth inning.

Trenary opened the following season as Louisville's starting center fielder, but when the Braves demoted their starting center fielder, Ellis Burton, to Louisville for lack of performance, the organization didn't want Trenary sitting on the bench. So he was shipped out to the Braves affiliate in Austin, Texas, where he played with future major leagues Rico Carty and Wade Blassingame.

The past is a blur, but Trenary has wonderful memories, especially of Uecker, whose dry, dead pan humor earned him national attention in the TV sitcom, Mr. Belvedere.

'I roomed with Ueck and I'm tellin' you there wasn't a funnier guy around,' Trenary says with a smile during a break at Meadowlark. 'He was always pulling pranks. There was this one guy on our team (in Boise, Idaho) named Preacher Williams who was petrified of snakes. So one night Ueck goes out in the dead of the night, finds a snake and wraps it around the Preacher's door knob at the hotel. Well, later that night, we all heard Preacher screaming like a maniac. There was no way he was ever goin' back in that room'

Then there was the night in 1958 when Trenary was loosening up before leading off a game when No. 2 hitter, future major league second baseman Ron Hunt, informed him, 'Hey Joe, I gotta go to the can, so take a few pitches for me and string out this at bat'.

So Trenary steps into the box, prepared for a lengthy at bat. 'But the first pitch is as fat a pitch I'd seen in a while', he says. 'I just couldn't lay off it'.

He hammered it over the left center field for a home run. 'As I'm rounding first base, I realized, 'Oh no. What about Ron? I rounded the bases as slowly as I could'.

As Trenary crossed home plate, Hunt was nowhere to be seen. The crowd had to wait another five minutes before Hunt finally emerged from the restroom amid a chorus of laughter.

'It was quite a comical scene'. Trenary says with a smile.

The years have been very good to Trenary. He's in excellent shape and looks much younger than his age of 62. His life is consumed with his family and golf now, yet baseball remains in his blood. Always will be too - even though he never made it to The Show.

'Back when I played, it was very, very difficult to make the big leagues', he says. How difficult? There was only 14 major-league teams, and those teams had thousands of talented players scattered among their 27 farm clubs. Today, there's 30 major-league clubs each with only six farm teams.

'It's easier to make the majors today'. Trenary says. 'Plus, guys are rushed to the big leagues these days and they still need to polish up their game. But I don't regret not making the majors. I had a good time".[24] about his mother: "On this Mother's Day 2004, I'm asked to contribute to this book two paragraphs containing a few thoughts about my Mother. A complete biography of her varied and diverse life could easily fill an entire book. She would have me tell you that she was elected to serve as a conservative Republican on the Allen County Council for eighteen years, is an organist and member of the Living Faith Missionary Church, enjoys quilting and loves working on genealogy with her cousin Tom Barker despite his misguided liberal Democratic persuasions!

I chose to describe this remarkable woman as one whose impact on the lives of a countless number of people can barely be introduced in a single paragraph. From the dozens of students who learned to read and play music by her teaching, the scores of people who learned of social issues from her public addresses, her constituents whose tax dollars she fiercely guarded as though they were her own, the friends and neighbors who got into the Christmas spirit by attending her 'Open House' parties, the elderly for whom the soft spot in her heart seems endless... even my dog 'Bud' who's warmed by a blanket she made just for us to use when we cuddle on the couch to watch TV. All this and I've only begun.

Please indulge me in one final paragraph. For to me, she's the one who makes the best pies I've ever tasted, taught me by living example to be honest, fair and principled, loves me just the way I am and never hesitates to say it and, equally as important, inspires me to continue and endure even when hope seems gone. She's completely, extremely, wonderfully, lovingly, simply - my Mom".

No doubt the siren songs that lured Richard and Matilda from Virginia, to Ossian, Indiana, in the early part of the nineteenth century, were the same that prompted their son Levi to take his wife, Elizabeth, and their four children to the harsh and inclement regions of Michigan's Upper Peninsula.

Unlike Richard and Matilda, however, who walked from Virginia to Indiana, Levi and his family enjoyed the "luxury" of a train ride on their trek north. The Grand Rapids and Indiana Railroad, which was in its infancy at the time, had just completed a line from Fort Wayne to Mackinac City. However "new-fangled" the trains were at that time, it is certain that the journey was long and arduous.

 [In this chapter, I have added some of my own personal commentary. Tom Trenary Barker]*

At Mackinac City, they were ferried across the straits on the steamer Algoman, and in St. Ignace they boarded the Detroit, Mackinac and Marquette Railroad, which had completed a line to Marquette in 1881.

Their destination was a spot in the wilderness called Ward's Siding, which was simply a loading site for logs a short distance west of the AuTrain River. They arrived at the small settlement of scattered log cabins in April of 1886.

Sarah Elizabeth Swaim

For a young mother with four small children to care for, it could not have been Shangri-La, but Elizabeth was also of pioneer stock, and perhaps she heard the same songs as Levi. Her father, Tanton Swaim, was the grandson of William Turner, a zealous patriot in the Revolutionary War. He was born in Jacobstown, New Jersey, and later migrated to Troy, Ohio, where he formed a partnership with his brother, William, in manufacturing of plows. In 1857 he moved west to a farm near Ossian, where he raised his nine children.

Elizabeth and the children stayed at Ward's Siding while Levi and five other men blazed a road through the wilderness. These first settlers of Mathis Township were John D. Winters, Woodbury Walls, Joseph Stevens, and James Hawley who arrived at Ward's siding a year earlier from Canada, and Levi's friend who came with him from Ossian, Ind., Lewis Bunn. Levi filed for his homestead on May 5,1886, a 160 acre tract of land designated as Section 20, Township 44 North 21 East.

Although the six men worked diligently, it took them sixteen months to prove their homesteads, clear a homesite out of the virgin hardwood and build some sort of shelter on it, plus build a road to them. In August of 1887 Levi moved his family over this road, which followed AuTrain River and along Mud and Trout Lakes, then turned west to their homestead. Much of the road was over low, marshy ground, and was made navigable only by laying logs side by side, creating what is known as a "corduroy" road. Vehicles drawn over such a road were impossible to ride in, and so it was that although Levi borrowed a horse and wagon to transport his meagre belongings to his new homesite, his family walked a good part of the way. Although it was only twenty-six miles, it took them two days to make the journey. They slept overnight in James Hawley's homestead cabin, which was called the "half-way house."

Levi's second log home built in 1889

Levi had built a one-room log house with split clapboards for a roof and a floor of rough planks. The lumber used in the floors and woodwork was hauled in from Lathrop, a small logging community about thirty miles away via the logging road, and cost less than the cost of the transportation.

In 1889, their second summer on the homestead, a forest fire swept through the area and completely destroyed their cabin. A few of their belongings, a sewing machine and some bedding that was stored in a blanket box that Levi had made in 1885 while still in Ossian, were saved by lowering them into the well. The blanket box has survived throughout the years, and is now in the possession of Tom Barker, Levi's great grandson.

The second dwelling Levi built in 1889 south of the first, was also of logs, much larger and more comfortable than the first. The cabin and forty acres of Levi's homestead are still in the Trenary family, owned by George Trenary of Marquette, Mich. (now owned by Patty Trenary of Gladstone, Mich.) and still used by his descendants today as a hunting and fishing cabin. Sometime shortly after 1900 he build a frame house which boasted many "modern" conveniences. There was a pump right outside the kitchen door with a wooden platform all around it. The well water run-off through this platform also kept a root cellar cool, keeping vegetables and other perishables in an edible state all year 'round. Perhaps the most ingenious innovation was the series of sheds which connected the "outhouse" to the main house, enabling everybody to go to the privy without going outdoors.

Levi and Elizabeth's home, either because of its seniority in the area, or because of their inherent hospitality, was for many years the wayside station for every traveler who passed within miles of their place. Whenever strangers showed up, they were given food and a place to sleep, usually at the expense of the children, who were rooted out of their beds and forced to sleep on the floor. For them it was no great hardship, as they loved the excitement of having visitors who brought stories and news of the "outside world." For Elizabeth and the girls, it meant extra work, but they too enjoyed the break in the monotony of their lives.

Around the turned of the century, the Soo Line Railroad built a line into Trenary from Rapid River, and that was a time of great excitement for Levi's family because the "big boss," Mr. F.J. Merriman, stayed with them while the railroad was being build. He was a rather worldly gentleman who had traveled extensively, and he constantly entertained the family with tales of his adventures. It seems that he also possessed a certain amount of acting ability, as he delighted the children, especially, with his improvised performances, using water colors for make up.

LIBBIE GOING TO FIX CHICKEN DINNER

In 1888 a crude log cabin schoolhouse was built three miles from their home. The three oldest children, Axie, Will and Blanche, walked the six miles back and forth each day through the woods. Fortunately for them, school was in session only three months of the year. In 1890, another log school was build, this time near their home, and Elizabeth's brother, Charles Swaim, came from Ossian to teach there. The desks and benches were crude, hand made affairs, and it was heated with a simple barrel stove that had to be fed constantly, but in spite of the inconveniences, the five pupils made the most of their educational opportunities.

During those early years, Levi walked back and forth to Lathrop for supplies, and to carry the mail. During the winter he used a dog team and sled, but in the summer he walked, until the roads eventually became developed enough to use a horse and buggy, or cutter. On foot, the trip took three days. Later on, the mail station was changed to Chatham, which was only twelve miles away, and that made the trip much less arduous and lengthy. When a postoffice was established in the settlement, Levi became the postmaster and the place was officially name Trenary, in his honor. When Levi acquired a team of spanking bays and a wagon, he created quite a sensation every time he rode in or out of town.

Levi prospered as time marched on, for he was an ambitious and resourceful man. He built and operated the first sawmill in the county, which was located east of James Hawley's place. As a farmer, he managed to do so well he was able to buy the first threshing machine in the settlement; and in 1893, after a particularly good potato crop, he brought a bit of culture to Trenary by purchasing a parlor organ, the first ever to be seen in the area. Levi was something of a musician, albeit he played only "by ear." He was, in fact, sort of the "official fiddler" for the social functions in and around Trenary. Although the parties in those days were few and far between, they were gala affairs that included entire families (infants to grandparents) and they often lasted throughout the night.

For many years, Levi did all the blacksmithing for those who had need of his talents, and he made coffins for those who would never need his services again. Not only did he build the pine boxes to bury his fellow townsmen in, but he read the last rites for them as well. As resident lay preacher, Justice of the Peace, he performed weddings, officiated at funerals, and comforted those who needed him in whatever way was needed. With the help of a pair of forceps from Montgomery Wards, he also became a self-taught dentist. He used his back porch as a dentist parlor, and most of his ministrations were well attended by groups of interested bystanders.

In 1907 Levi started a diary, beginning on New Year's Day. Most of his notes were concerned with the weather and small daily problems, but his account of his son's illness and death in February is very poignant. This is his continued daily accounts through mid August, then he wrote only occasionally, ending with only a single entry in 1910.

Libbie and Levi Trenary relaxing in their Trenary, Michigan home

As the town grew, Levi continued to participate in all phases of its development. He held the office of County Supervisor and Township Clerk in addition to his many self-appointed positions. Elizabeth also did her share for the community. She started the first Methodist Sunday School in her home, worked at church socials and made linings of pleated cotton for the coffins Levi built. She was a gracious hostess to many visiting persons in the area, making their home the social center of the community.

Levi's obituary from the Ossian Journal, Ossian, Indiana: "A message was received by Mrs D A Roe, Tuesday evening, informing her of the death of her brother-in-law, L W Trenary, that day, in the home of his daughter, Mrs Robert Stark, at Allegan, Mich. The news was not unexpected, as it was known that Mr. Trenary was in a very serious condition suffering from cancer of the face. Several weeks ago Mrs. Roe visited with Mr and Mrs Trenary in the home of Dr and Mrs Stark in Allegan, at the time of the golden wedding anniversary of Mr and Mrs Trenary. At that time Mr Trenary's condition was beyond medical help.

The body has been taken from Allegan to Trenary, Mich., the home of Mr and Mrs Trenary, where the funeral service and interment will be held.

Levi Wesley Trenary was a Jefferson Township man, was born on the old Trenary farm, east of the Elhanan Church, seventy-three years ago, the son of pioneer settlers, Richard and Matilda (Settle) Trenary. He was one of a large family of children, but with the passing on Tuesday, all have now entered the great beyond. The parents and family, so well known here, lived their lifetime in this community, and there are many relatives here. The brothers of the deceased were George, John and Nelson Trenary, and the sisters were Mrs Matilda Lewis, Mrs Susan Kiser, Mrs Mary Wilkin, Mrs Adeline Rapp and Mrs Elizabeth Caston. Mrs Trenary is also a native of this township, and was Miss Elizabeth Swaim, a daughter of Mr and Mrs Tanton Swaim, of pioneer history. Her sisters are Mrs R W Stine and Mrs P A Allen, of Bluffton; Mrs D Roe, of Ossian; and a brother Tanton D Swaim, of near Fort Wayne. Forty years ago Mr and Mrs Trenary left Ossian to live in northern Michigan, establishing the town of Trenary, Mrs Trenary survives, with a son and two daughters, William Trenary of Trenary Mich, Blanche, the wife of Dr Stark of Allegan, Mich; and Pearl, the wife of Dr H H Ptolemny of Detroit, Mich".[7]

v. Mary E Caskanette was born in Oct 1899. She died 18 May 1900 in Escanaba, Delta Co, Mich., at 7 months of age.[13]

Achsah Inez Trenary and Eugene Bean had the following family:

vi. Emma Elizabeth Bean was born in Wisconsin 2 Feb 1908. She was reported as adopted in the 1910 census. Emma died from burns from a tent fire 10 May 1913 in Foster City, Dickinson Co, Mich., at 5 years of age.[14]
vii. Bertha Beatrice Bean was born in Wisconsin 6 Sep 1909. She was reported as adopted in the 1910 census. Bertha died from burns from a tent fire 9 May 1913 in Metropolitan, Dickinson Co, Mich., at 3 years of age.[15]

3. William Wesley[2] Trenary (Levi Wesley [1]) was born in Ossian, Wells Co, Ind. 31 Jul 1878. Will died 31 Jan 1936 in Escanaba, Delta Co, Mich., at 57 years of age.
He was stricken with a heart attack about 7 o'clock while eating dinner at Tilbert's Restaurant.[16] His body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich.

Will was married in Munising, Alger Co, Mich., 1 Jan 1907 to Lillian Gladys Gibson by Rev. J S Steininger. His sister and brother-in-law, Harcourt H and Pearle Ptolemy, witnessed the marriage. Lillian was born in Wheatley, Essex Co, Ontario, Canada 1 Jan 1883. Lillian was the daughter of Robert Gibson and Louisa Jane Sheldon. Lillian died 28 Jan 1976 in Libertyville, Lake Co, Ill., at 93 years of age. Her body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich.

Grace Trenary Bills wrote of her mother and their life in Trenary: "Lillian and Will first lived in a log cabin next door to his parents on the west. As their family grew a lovely 2 story house was purchased from Montgomery Ward and built on the two lots east of his parents. The house was a modern showpiece from its broad front porch with a beveled glass front door opening to a spacious front hall. A carved newel post graced the open stair on the left. Through a broad arch on the right was the living room. Stright ahead was the dining room with a triple bay window on the left. On the right was Will and Lillian's bedroom. Behind these was the kitchen, the bath and the back hall and stairway to the basement. In one corner of the kitchen was a sink with a hand pump providing soft rain-water from a large cistern. Drainage was to a cesspool in the backyard. Beneath the kitchen was a spacious cement cellar. In one corner was the big furnace and coal bin. There were 3 wide shelves about 30 inches by 10-12 feet for storing canned goods and to cool pans of fresh milk. Root vegetables and apples in small amounts were brought in from the root cellar. Crocks of dill pickles and sauerkraut were stored to one side. The second floor had 3 finished bedrooms. The fourth bedroom upstairs went across the back of the house. It was unfinished. There was a ladder up one wall that led to the dark attic, where a big black bear lived. It growled and was ferocious and ate the leftover porridge . (I had 5 older brothers)

Will was a good provider for his growing family which was evidenced by having the biggest house in town. It even had a bath tub! Unfortunately there was no running water or electricity. The Saturday night bath was accomplished by pumping water from the cistern pump (when the cistern was full) into a pail - which was emptied into a copper boiler on the cook stove. (In the winter as the rain water in the cistern was depleted - bath water was pumped from the well on the back stoop which provided crystal clear 40 degree water). The water in the boiler and the water in the reservoir on the back of the stove were heated by keeping the stove hot with wood brought in from the woodshed. The process was reversed then hot water was dipped into a pail and bath tub was filled. 2 or 3 kids were bathed before the plug in the drain was pulled and the whole procedure repeated over and over until the whole family was bathed. Water for washing clothes was heated in the same manner. The kitchen was transformed into a laundry. At first there was a washer with a hand operated lever that sloshed the clothes back and forth. Later there was a gasoline powered washer and I remember the square Maytag. (I also remember Mother getting her arm caught in the ringer one time and she was bruised and sore for 2-3 weeks). 2 tubs of water for rinsing were placed adjacent to the washer. The last rinse water had to have bluing in it to make the white clothes whiter. Shirts and dresses had to go through a starching process after the rinse. In summer hanging clothes out on the line was a breeze. Sheets dried smelling so sweet and fresh. Towels were always harsh. In the bitter winter, if the snow was too deep under the clothes lines, the front porch and the unfinished north bedroom had noose-like clotheslines. Long-johns frozen on the front porch lines often greeted visitors. It was the way of life.

Ironing for this ever-growing family was an unending chore. Visitors like the minister who often stayed overnight on his far expanding circuit were the only ones who got ironed sheets. The flat irons were heated on the stove and switched every few minutes for a hot one. The starched shirts and dresses had to be sprinkled - ie. dampened - to be certain they could be ironed smoothly. As progress caught up Lillian had a gas iron - finally in the 30's an electric one.

The kitchen - as all the rooms on the first floor - had hardwood floors. - no quick sponge up was possible. Scrubbing on hands and knees with a scrub brush & Fels-Naphtha soap was the routine.

To provide for this ever expanding family a large vegetable garden was made on the lot east of the house. The garden provided asparagus, peas, beans, carrots, beets, corn, parsnips, potatoes, cucumbers for pickles and tomatoes. The kids weeded, picked potato bugs, sold produce and never went hungry. Flour, sugar and coffee were the major purchases. They were brought home from the A& P in Gladstone in 100 # bags. Lillian held her family intact with the help of Will and the boys hunting skills and annual butchering. Blueberries were picked and washtubs full were canned along with jars of wild strawberries, raspberries, rhubarb, apples.

Lillian and her children, (one every 2 years) gardened, picked berries, canned hundreds of cans of food, kept cows, chickens, pigs. She sewed, was an active leader in the community and a pillar of the Methodist Church. Money was not plentiful, nonetheless enough had been saved and plans were made to "modernize" the house with indoor plumbing in 1929-30.

Then Will lost his job. He had worked 25 years for Northwestern Cooperage and Lumber Co., on the Buckeye as the Locomotive Engineer and log loader operator. This company went bankrupt and all pension benefits were lost. It took all the ingenuity and know-how they could muster, to keep the family fed and clothed. Their nest egg for modernization was depleted of all but $7.00 before Will found work with the Alger County Road Commission."

William Wesley Trenary and Lillian Gladys Gibson had the following family:

7 i. Helen Louise[3] Trenary was born 31 May 1907.

ii. Robert Wesley Trenary was born in Trenary, Alger Co, Mich. 8 Feb 1908. Lillian's note said he was born at 2:00 p.m. on Monday. Bob died 15 May 1983 in Toledo, Lucas Co, Ohio, at 75 years of age. His body was buried in the Memorial Park Cemetery in Toledo, Ohio. Bob was married 30 May 1934 to Eleanor Cole. Eleanor was born 30 May 1912. Eleanor was the daughter of Bert Cole and Lucy Scott. Eleanor died 11 Apr 1984 in Sylvania, Lucas Co, Ohio, at 71 years of age. Her body was buried in the Memorial Park Cemetery in Toledo, Ohio. Bob graduated from Trenary High School in 1926. He served in the US Navy Seabees at Guadalcanal, Solomon Islands during World War II. He was a paint specialist for 31 years with E.I. DuPont in Toledo, Ohio, and Eleanor worked for Champion Spark Plug for 31 years. After mother died Bob and Eleanor offered to help Dad by taking care of Scott but Dad kept us together for which I am grateful. I have memories of Uncle Bob coming up to our place in Holt to take Scott and me pheasant hunting. No children.

8 iii. Dorothy Swaim Trenary was born 23 Jan 1911.

9 iv. Hugh Gibson Trenary was born 27 Jan 1913.

10 v. James Woodrow Trenary was born 24 Feb 1915.

11 vi. George William Trenary was born 4 Jul 1917.

vii. Floyd Sheldon Trenary was born in Trenary, Alger Co, Mich. 25 Jan 1920. Lillian's note said he was born at 2:00 p.m. on Sunday. Shel died 19 Dec 1990 in Munising, Alger Co, Mich., at 70 years of age. His ashes are buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich. He married twice. Shel was married first to Ruth Hullhorst. She is the mother of Charles Hullhorst by a previous marriage. Shel was married second at the Aldersgate Methodist Church in Toledo, Lucas Co, Ohio, 18 May 1957 to Shirley Ann Blackbird Letourneau, by Rev. Joseph G Snyder. Shirley was born in Withrow, Washington Co, Minn. 24 Feb 1925. Shirley was the daughter of Albert Blackbird and Nelly Arcand. She was married first to Paul V Anderson and they are the parents of Douglas Anderson. Shirley died of cancer at the St. Francis Hospital 10 Nov 2002 in Escanaba, Delta Co, Mich., at 77 years of age. Her ashes are buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich. There was a very close bond between Shel and his father. Shel developed his unique ingenuity as his father's understudy. When Will died Shel grieved by taking off into the northern woods for days at a time. He would never get lost, he said because he "always knew where he was within a section or two". Shel graduated from Trenary High School in 1938, then went to work on the ore freighters on Lake Superior. At the onset of World War II he enlisted in the US Navy and served on the USS O'Bannon, the most decorated war ship in the South Pacific.

"There was a crooked man who walked a crooked mile..."
These "one of a kind" canes are hand carved by a disabled World War II veteran who served aboard the S.S. O'Bannon, the most highly decorated ship during WW II. He tramps the woods of northern Michigan to find the specially shaped saplings that he hand carves into these unique sturdy canes. Their "one-of-a-kind" characteristics make them ideally suitable for your own "one-of-a-kind" character.

SHEL MADE "CROOKED MAN CANES"

When my mother died I remember "Unk" bunking out in our garage with his navy hammock. Later he lived with us for awhile when I was a teenager, in Holt, Mich. This is when I learned how to short sheet a bed and he was my first victim, but I never even came near to getting even for all the tricks he pulled on Scott and me. "Unk" was truly a "Jack of all Trades" and he mastered many. He became a Journeymen carpenter and taught my brother, Scott, his carpentry skills while Scott lived with them in Toledo, Ohio. After recovering from tuberculosis, Shel and Shirley became house and personal caretakers for the president of the 3M Company, Mr Ordway, and his wife in White Bear Lake, Minn. Shel was both butler and chauffeur and Shirley the cook. Shel was a great woodsman who loved to fish and hunt. He was a moose hunting guide in Canada for awhile. In 1986 Shel returned to Trenary Mich. to live out his retirement. They purchased the former Methodist Church parsonage adjacent to the church where his mother had been a very active member.

12 viii. Grace Elizabeth Trenary was born 28 Feb 1922.

ix. Alice Jean Trenary was born in Munising, Alger Co, Mich. 6 Nov 1926. Lillian's note said she was born at 8:00 a.m. on Sunday. Jean died 29 Feb 1988 in Munising, Alger Co, Mich., at 61 years of age.[17] Her body was buried in the Mathias Twp Cemetery in Trenary, Mich. Jean was a mongoloid (Down's Syndrome) child and after her father died she was placed in the state institution at Newberry, Mich. She never received any training as those special children do today. The State closed the Newberry State Hospital and Jean was moved to a foster care unit in Munising, Mich.

4. Blanche Elva[2] Trenary (Levi Wesley [1]) was born in Ossian, Wells Co, Ind. 3 Aug 1880. Blanche died 31 May 1931 in Highland Park, Wayne Co, Mich., at 50 years of age. Her body was buried in a cemetery in Ann Arbor, Mich.

13 i. Norman Trenary[3] Stark was born 18 Apr 1904.

She was married in Escanaba, Delta Co, Mich., 29 Oct 1906 to Harcourt Hayden Ptolemy MD. Doc was born in Hamilton, Ontario, Canada 19 Oct 1882. Doc was the son of Henry Ptolemy and Sarah Louise Heyden. He died 18 Mar 1963 in Dearborn, Wayne Co, Mich., at 80 years of age. His body was buried in the Park View Memorial Cemetery in Livonia, Mich.

He graduated from University of Michigan Medical School in 1904, did his internship at Bay City and took up his first practice in Trenary, Mich. in 1905. They moved to Ann Arbor, Mich. in 1920.

In 1976 Pearle's daughter Mary Ptolemy Palencsar wrote the following letter to Dr Hunt at Michigan State University:

"Dear Dr. Hunt: A recent account in the Grand Rapids Press (June 27) concerning your medical training program in the Upper Peninsula has had a special impact on me. It impels me to share with you some personal knowledge and experience of how things were in that area sixty years ago.

You and your students, especially those training in Escanaba, may find in this some historical perspective and perhaps a little amusement. I know you are all busy, but I hope you will find a bit of leisure time to read what I have to tell here.

I am an 'elderly lady' of 68 years. The first twelve years of my life were spent in the town of my birth, - Trenary, Michigan, a village located about 30 miles north of Escanaba.

My father, Harcourt Hayden Ptolemy M.D. (What a moniker!) practiced medicine there from 1905 to 1920. He was the second doctor there, the first being a Dr. Carlson, who stayed but briefly and then went to Escanaba.

Dr. Ptolemy came to Trenary fresh from the University of Michigan medical class of 1904 and internship in Bay City. With a name like his he had two strikes on him already. People never did know how to pronounce Ptolemy; and few, if any, had ever heard of Claudius Ptolemy or even Cleopatra Ptolemy. Harcourt was a tender little fellow of 23 when he arrived wearing a black derby hat and Chesterfield coat. This garb was quickly shed for a fur cap with ear muffs and a shaggy fur coat. In pictures first taken of him he looks like a scared little boy working hard to appear the dignified physician. At least one verbal citizen expressed doubt: 'THAT'S a doctor??!'

Hostile vibes were directed to him for quite awhile before he could demonstrate that he knew a few things and his heart was in the right place. It helped when in a year or so he married my mother, Pearl Trenary, pioneer daughter, and so was accepted as a member of the local Establishment.

My maternal grandparents, Levi and Elizabeth Trenary were among the earliest settlers in the area. My grandfather became the first postmaster and so the town was named after him. – Trenary was then in the middle of the big woods. The lumbering companies were busy cutting off the hardwood timber. The town was a bit like we see in the Western movies - roistering and lively. There were three general merchandise stores, a two-room two-teacher schoolhouse, a Methodist church, an opera house (still standing), a hotel, a livery stable and at least three saloons. The railroad was installed several years before our time and had its station. The trains came in three or four times a week.

My father 'officiated' at my birth during a raging blizzard in March 1908. A long time later I heard the low-down about what happened. It seems the doctor/father-to-be almost asphyxiated himself functioning as the anaesthesiologist. Fortunately, the patient, - my mother, - was unconscious of the near-tragedy. We all survived the ordeal and went on together for the next fifty years and more, due to the inherent toughness of the human organism.

Conditions were primitive during our life there. Electricity didn't arrive until after we left to move to Detroit in 1920. We had one of the few telephones, a wall-instrument with hand crank connected to 'Central' in Chatham. My father was one of the first to get a car, - a Model T Ford. He had to pick it up in Munising and drive it home without benefit of Driver-Training course. He got stuck in the mud on the way. Roads were mostly single-track dirt lanes, full of chuck-holes and ankle-deep in mud when the weather was wet. When the first Macadam road was built from Trenary to Chatham it was great progress. — Before the day of the car, the doctor hired horses from the livery stable and later had his own team with buggy and cutter. I can remember my father having to go out at night to hitch up the good old Prince and Gypsy and then drive out to make a home call in a raging blizzard.

I can tell you there was nearly always a raging blizzard! Up there winter came in August and stayed through July, - at least according to the anecdotes.

Our first gasoline lamp was an exciting event. For my father it meant he could do a lot more reading. He stayed up many nights from that time on, reading whatever he could get. He brought many books with him to Trenary and I have since been impressed with the richness and excellence of his small library. Along the way he bought an Encyclopedia Britannica and other reference books. He subscribed to medical literature, plus the Marquette Mining Journal and other periodicals, including the long-defunct Literary Digest and the Saturday Evening Post.

The doctor read the AMA Journal and other medical sheets diligently. He consulted with other doctors in Munising, Marquette, Gladstone, and Escanaba. He attended medical meetings in these cities. – When his patients needed hospitalization (only in dire crises), he referred the case to his city colleagues.

Professionally, the physician had to try to be: Diagnostician, Pathologist, Lab Technician, Pharmacologist, First Aid artist, Internist, Obstetrician, Pediatrician, Gynecologist, Urologist, Dermatologist, Epidemiologist, Clinical Psychologist, Father Confessor and the Wizard of Oz - all rolled into one.

What a glorious ego trip it must have been, once he got the hang of it and acquired a few true believers! – Oh yes, he was also the area's Public Health Officer responsible for quarantine. And he kept an eye peeled on such things as polluted water wells and unsanitary privies. He attempted to get most of the population vaccinated against smallpox.

My mother, my brother and I sometimes went along with Papa on home calls. We were present one time when, in the middle of a deep-woods road, a man stopped us and pleaded with my father to help him. He was groaning in agony with a terrible toothache. The Doc forthwith sat him down on a nearby stump and pulled the offending tooth. The Dental Society was not yet militant about its own rights.

Young Doc Ptolemy in due time became a dynamic factor in that community, - a full participant. The population was still sparse and so it was likely he had some time on his hands. He liked and mingled freely with all the ethnic groups, - the Finns, the Swedes, the Germans, the Irish, the lumberjacks, the saloon-keepers and their willing victims. In the last years he was there he became president of the school board. He was one of a group that pushed through completion of the Trenary consolidated school, one of the earliest in Michigan. He believed that community, even though isolated, should have the best education available. - - - When he left Trenary in 1920 to move to Detroit the people gave him a gala farewell, complete with gold watch.

Cultural and social life weren't bad, either. My parents were annual subscribers to a concert series in Marquette sponsored by the college. Top artists and orchestras were brought in and my parents drove out to Marquette to hear Caruso, Paderweski, Geraldine Farrar, Fritz Kriesler and such. There was also Shakespearean drama and opera. Evidently the doctor was able to get away with impunity. Nowadays, he'd likely be sued for malpractice for leaving his post to attend a concert.

We had one of the few pianos in the area, - a beautiful upright Grinnell. My mother was musically talented and my father encouraged her to go by train to Escanaba for weekly piano lessons. —My father was a member of a barbershop quartet. – The Trenary Opera House was the scene of many a rollicking play and musical, with local amateur talent. I especially remember Dicken's Christmas Carol. – The Doc made a stab at playing baseball in the annual Fourth of July game. And he would even dance at hoe-downs. - under duress.

The doctor had his own medical building, - just a rude little square wooden place on the main four corners of Trenary. He kept regular afternoon and evening office hours, sometimes interrupted by home call emergencies, such as 'unfinement cases' (as my little brother called baby deliveries.) He was at the beck and call of the whole area at all times, - but he still evidently was not too pushed. He didn't get rich fast, - or at all. He was often paid in other than money. I recall the rich yellow cream brought to him in a pail and quickly made by him personally into luscious banana or strawberry ice cream in his hand-cranked freezer.

The Doc enjoyed telling of his experiences. He related (probably a thousand times at least!) of his first winter night call. It was out in the woods beyond the end of a logging road. He took his medical bag and a lantern, drove the horse as far as it could go, then set out on foot through the woods toward the cabin where the patient lay. It was cold, dark, and fearful. Wolves were howling 'round. The little young doctor was shivering and wondering why he had made the decision to start his career in such a place. — The patient had pneumonia. Antibiotics were far into the future. The doctor did what he could and stayed through the night. The patient recovered. He might have gotten well no matter what. But it's nice to speculate that perhaps his morale was bolstered by the fact that the doctor did come when called.

Doc Ptolemy was voluble and sociable. He loved a sprightly conversation and he often initiated heated discussions and arrogant arguments. Our family dinner table was his forum, and he held forth wherever he dined. He told of his first experience at one of the lumber camps near Trenary. He was physician for the Cleveland Cliffs Company and was called in for first aid, medical or health problems. — On this occasion he was having noon dinner with the lumberjack crew. As usual with him, he was full of happy-talk-talk, going on and on, resonantly. Suddenly there came a hard slap on his shoulder. It was the cook, the absolute monarch and undisputed authority of the camp at mealtimes. Doc had been so occupied with his own gabbing he hadn't become aware of the silence around him and the fear on the faces of his companions. 'NO TALKING!' thundered the ogre. This was probably the only time in his life Dr. Ptolemy had been told to SHUT UP! And he did.

Babies were born at home of course. Often the husband was the only person assisting the doctor. The doctor had plenty of big problems to maintain even minimum antiseptic procedures. He did the best he could and lived with his own anxieties. - One memorable obstetric case was in a little hut occupied by a young Finnish couple. It was a cold winter night, but a raging blizzard was never mentioned. The doctor went out and stayed through the process. The accouchement bed was all set up and things were progressing nicely, - when all at once from a crack overhead there gushed a warm stream of yellow fluid - directly onto the delivery area. There was consternation and scurrying while the doctor and husband rearranged things. Presently the new baby boy came lustily and all was well. When things had settled down the young father explained matter-of-factly that the overhead cascade was from the calf living in the attic for the winter. This calf was a heifer and its survival meant future milk supply for the family. — Well, as Dr. Ptolemy remarked, 'How close to the Holy Nativity scene can you get?'

My father's story is that of a doctor who forsook the rigors in the rural setting for the big city. I do not know for sure what his reasons were. But I have surmised that he listened to siren family songs and maybe also to snake oil voices. Anyway, we moved to Detroit and 1920 and life was never again as happy or fulfilling for him.

My brother and I both feel that our childhood in Trenary was as idyllic as ever could be. We were as free as the babbling brook we played in.

Your philosophy and training program seem to me to be a Renaissance in medical service. Maybe the young doctors in it may find some value in knowing how it was just a little while ago".

In retirement Grace did a great deal of traveling and spent her summers thirty miles east of Trenary, Michigan, at her cottage on Crooked Lake. BABES ARE BURNED

TWO MEET DEATH IN TENT HOME AT METROPOLITAN DAM.

Spark from Camp Stove Sets Fire to the Sleeping Tent During Absence of the Father.

As the result of a spark from a chimney setting fire to a tent in which they were sleeping, one child was burned to death and another was so seriously burned that little hope is entertained for its recovery at Metropolitan, last Friday morning.

Little Veda Bean, the three-year-old daughter of Eugene Bean was so severely burned in the flaming tent that she passed away in terrible agony a short time after her horribly scorched body had been rescued from the tent. Emma Bean, six years of age, is the victim who lies at the point of death at the home of friends at Metropolitan.

Two months ago, the mother of the little girls passed away, leaving them in the care of their father. Mr . Bean is employed by Morgan Lumber & Cedar company to watch the Metropolitan dam, a short distance out of that village on the Sturgeon river. A short time after the death of his wife, Mr. Bean took his two little daughters and established a camp near the dam on the bank of the river. Early last Friday morning he arose at the usual hour and started a fire in a stove that had been set up in the tent. The children were sleeping soundly when Mr. Bean started the fire and went out to inspect an incubator in which he was hatching a number of eggs. He was absent for but a moment, but when he returned the tent was enveloped in flames.

It is thought that a spark from the pipe, which ran up through the top of the tent, alighted on the canvas and started the fire. Unnoticed, the fire spread and within an incredibly short time enveloped the flimsy structure. Before Mr. Bean could dash into the structure and gain the bedside of his children the fire had reached them.

Little three-year-old Veda was frightfully burned when she was carried out of the tent and the condition of the other child was slightly less serious. Dr. Moll was summoned from Foster City as quickly as possible, while home remedies were applied by the frantic father, assisted by neighbors, in an effort to alleviate the sufferings of the little ones.

Dr. Moll rushed to the scene of the accident in his automobile and place both of the victims in the machine to take them to the village. Little Veda passed away before the village was reached, while the other child was taken to the home of a friend, where everything possible to lessen her suffering was done. It was said that but a slight hope for her recovery was entertained.

Later - Emma, the eldest child, aged six years, died at Foster City on Saturday. Never at any time was Dr. Moll hopeful of saving the little life, but directed his efforts to relieve the suffering. She died at the home of Jonas Sundholm. The dual funeral was held on Monday from the Swedish Lutheran church, Rev. Herman Anderson conducting the service, which were very largely attended.

The father is under the care of Dr. Moll and is almost insane with grief.
